Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire – a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

New Server Training

Blessed Sacrament is conducting new Server training each Sunday, between the Masses, through August 14th. These sessions are from 9:15-10:15 a.m. in the Church. We would like the students to attend as many of the sessions as possible, understanding that with vacations during the summer, some sessions may be missed. Students who have completed, at least, the fourth grade and wish to receive this training are asked to contact Deacon Patrick at Deacon394@outlook.com or text at (740) 405-5308, giving the students and parent's names, and contact information. Students who wish to receive server training may join us in the church at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday and we will take their information at that time.

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book and Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book and Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

Update Membership Information

Does our Church database have YOUR family membership record correct?

Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven't already done so).

It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year.

Have you changed your phone number? Have you discontinued using you land-line and are using a cell number. Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published?

If you have not already informed the Church Office about changes to your family information, please let us know now so that the information in the Guide Book & Directory is correct. Call the parish office at 740 345-4290.

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace"
(1 Peter 4:10).

Our Catholic Faith encourages us to be good stewards of our treasures. As faithful stewards, we are encouraged to plan our legacy for the benefit of generations to come and for the prudent management of our assets during and beyond our lifetime.

As you plan your legacy, consider also the following crucial items:

1. Advanced Healthcare Directive (Power of Attorney for Healthcare): Makes it clear to doctors, family and friends whom we wish to make medical decisions for us when we are incapacitated.
2. Power of Attorney for Finances: Authorizes someone to pay our bills and manage our financial affairs when we cannot.
3. Will or Trust: Ensures that our earthly goods are distributed as we desire.
4. Funeral or Memorial Arrangements: Informs our survivors and priest of our wishes for the disposition of our mortal remains and for the content of the worship service celebrating our life.
5. Final Instructions for Family and Friends: Discloses the location of our vital papers including deeds, insurance policies, as well as bank, investment and retirement accounts.
6. Ethical Will: Allows us to tell our closest family members and friends what they have meant to us and what our hopes are for them and for our world.

Cardinal Sean O'Malley's Statement on Dallas Shooting

'The struggle continues: we mourn with the City of Dallas and with families across the land who have lost loved ones to this struggle.'

JULY 11, 2016 ZENIT STAFF CONFLICTS, WAR, TERRORISM

Cardinal Seán O'Malley, archbishop of Boston and president of the Pontifical Commission for the Protection of Minors, issued a statement Friday regarding the deadly shootings in Dallas, Texas

“The assassination of five members of the Dallas Police Department last night was a heinous crime that is rightly condemned across our country. Young and old, black and white, religious and secular voices have combined to denounce these killings. We join in the national mourning of this tragedy and offer prayers for the families and loved ones of the deceased officers.

These killings stood in stark contradiction to the spirit of the event, which brought hundreds of citizens to an assembly of peaceful protest in Dallas, similar to other such events around the country. The Dallas Police Department was there to provide protection for those who were peacefully exercising their constitutional right.

The purpose of the protest was to raise awareness of and call attention to a problem which cuts across the country. We are now in the second consecutive summer of turmoil linked to the deaths of African-American men in circumstances which often cast a pall over some methods of law enforcement. Each case must be evaluated on its merits and generalized statements often risk being mistaken. But to deny the existence of a problem is to miss an opportunity to address it.

There is a problem; addressing it will take the kind of cooperation which the Dallas community and its police officers demonstrated before a twisted mind desecrated an event that had a valid and necessary purpose. The means and methods of addressing the problem will require the best of our civil servants and the best of our citizens.

It will require respect for the law and respectful enforcement by police and legal authorities. Most of all, it will require all Americans to respect each other.

These killings in Dallas remind many of us of another assassination in that city more than fifty years ago. Only months before his death, President Kennedy had said of the struggle for civil rights that it was as ancient as the Scriptures and as clear as the Constitution. The struggle continues: we mourn with the City of Dallas and with families across the land who have lost loved ones to this struggle. It is again time to face our problems of racial justice and civic peace. May God be with us.”
